

ORGANIC SUMMIT 2025

HOW TO ACHIEVE 25 PERCENT ORGANICS IN THE EU BY 2030

18 – 19 August 2025

Copenhagen, Denmark

The Royal Danish Library and The Danish Parliament

PRESS RELEASE

ORGANIC SUMMIT 2025 PRESENTS A STRONG LINE-UP OF SPEAKERS

Prominent speakers from across Europe will gather in Copenhagen at the Organic Summit on August 18–19 to agree on a common charter with concrete recommendations on how organic farming and market can grow to 25 percent in 2030 and thus contribute to transforming future food production.

One of the standout speakers at Organic Summit 2025 is Norwegian physician and environmental advocate Gunhild Stordalen. She is the founder and owner of the non-profit organization EAT, which, in collaboration with the renowned medical journal The Lancet, published the “EAT-Lancet Planetary Diet” report in 2018. Its recommendations for shifting diets toward more plant-based foods have gained global support as official dietary guidelines.

In addition to Gunhild Stordalen, the conference will host a wide range of leading figures in organic agriculture, as well as decision-makers from politics, research, and the agricultural and food industries.

Meet, among others:

- Philip Lymbery, CEO of Compassion in World Farming International, a leading advocate for farm animal welfare with activities in 40 countries. He is also President of The Federation Eurogroup for Animals, a board member of the World Federation for Animals, the sole animal welfare representative in Ursula von der Leyen’s Strategic Dialogue on the Future of EU Agriculture, and a member of the UN Advisory Board on Food Systems. Lymbery is also an award-winning author. His latest book is Sixty Harvests Left: How to Reach a Nature-Friendly Future.
- Renate Künast, former German Minister of Agriculture under Chancellor Gerhard Schröder. During her tenure as minister, she worked to improve consumer protection, support organic farming, and enhance animal welfare.
- A panel of Europe’s leading organic food producers, including:
  - Peter Sisseck, Dominio de Pingus, Denmark
  - Thomas Moschos, Moschos Dairy Farm, Greece – winner of the EU Organic Awards
  - Krzysztof Ostrowicki, Juchowo Farm, Poland
  - Giovanni Battista Girolomoni, Girolomoni Organic Cooperative, Italy – also an EU Organic Awards winner

The press is welcome to attend Organic Summit 2025 in Copenhagen.
For accreditation, please contact:

Simon M Sørensen
Organic Denmark
Email: sms@okologi.dk

Mille Christensen
The Danish Agriculture and Food Council
Email: mic@lf.dk

About Organic Summit 2025

This high-level event brings together policymakers, researchers, farmers, and businesses from across Europe to accelerate the green transition – with organic solutions at the heart of the agenda to develop recommendations on how to achieve 25 pct organic farming in Europe by 2030. The Organic Summit 2025 is an extraordinary opportunity for the press to get exciting and eye-opening stories and meet all the people who will influence the future food system.

To access the full program, please visit the Organic Summit website:
www.os25.org

